

ARRESTED SERVED IN YOUNG WILLISON

FAILS FOR A MILLION NOTHING

Pettibill & Co. Advertising Agency's Failure a Disastrous One.

HAS OVER 7,000 CREDITORS

With liabilities amounting to upward of one million dollars, with assets amounting to practically nothing, and with 7,000 creditors having claims ranging from $50.00 to fifty cents, the advertising firm of Pettibill & Co. has gone into bankruptcy.

The petition was filed in the United States District Court yesterday, the petitioners being the Globe Newspaper Publishing Company, of Boston, and the Star Company and New York Evening Journal Publishing Company, of New York, the aggregate claims of which, as appearing in the petition, amount to $24,000.

RELIEVED TO BE WEALTHY.

The advertising agency of Pettibill & Co., in the form of a firm of "Proprietors," has been relieved of its liabilities, and the firm of Pettibill & Co. has been dissolved.

HAD $300,000 CAPITAL.

In June, 1903, Pettibill & Co. was incorporated under the laws of New York, the capitalization being $300,000. In the certificate, accompanying the application for a charter, it is alleged that for this $300,000 in stock, $250,000 had been paid in full, and the balance of $50,000 was to be paid in cash, securities, contracts and good will.

The officers of the corporation were: John W. Wood, president; and John W. Wood, secretary. These parties were also directors, and immediately upon the exact making of the corporation, the exact making of the corporation was immediately prior to the formation of the new corporation.

The "Globe" and "Journal" of the Boston, New York, is stated in the articles of incorporation, as the corporation's "place of business." Pettibill has a few hundred in the city, and had not heretofore been regarded as a business office.

On July 6, 1903, the New York corporation of Pettibill & Co. was dissolved, and the assets of the corporation were sold.

Continued on 4th Page 1st Column.

COURT FREES ELSIE RICHMOND LOVERING

BEAUTIFUL ARTIST'S MODEL GRANTED DIVORCE—LOVERING REPRIMANDED.

In spite of all the damning testimony (The Boston Herald) had given before Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

The divorce was granted by Judge Sherman, in the criminal suit for adultery, the beautiful artist's model, Elsie Richmond Lovering, was granted a divorce from her husband, Mr. Frank A. Brown, and at her husband's expense, she was allowed to remain in the Hotel Plaza, where she had been living since her arrest.

JAPS PUT COSSACKS TO ROUT

Casualties in First Officially Reported Battle Number 140.

RUSSIANS LEAVE DEAD

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—General Kuropatkin reports that, according to the Japanese, there were forty killed and six wounded in the fight at Chong Ja on March 28.

The Japanese had a large number of horses, according to Russian reports.

General Kuropatkin further telegraphs that Captain Brown, who was wounded at Chong Ja, is dead.

Japs Rout Enemy.

LONDON, March 29.—Dispatches from Tokyo give an account of a battle between Japanese troops and Russian troops at Chong Ja, near Ping Yang.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

The same troops are now appearing in the Japanese press.

CHARGING HIM WITH MURDER

On Result of Autopsy, Formal Complaint is Made and Youth is Locked Up in Jamaica Plain Station—Warrants Charge Him with Slaying His Mother and Stepfather, Artist Brown.

A warrant was issued this afternoon for the arrest of Willis Wilson. He is charged with the murder of his stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Brown.

The warrant is based upon the report of Medical Examiner Draper, who performed an autopsy upon the victims of the Reineville tragedy.

Dr. Draper's report has not yet been filed with the district attorney, but it is believed that the police will have it in their hands by tomorrow.

A left-handed man, who was employed in the studio with Brown, however, says that the scene of the crime was fully described by him.

It was on this ground, coupled with the fact that Brown's face had not been found with powder, that led to the holding of the inquest.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

The statement of the artist that Brown occasionally used his left hand to paint upon canvases, even when he was in the studio, was also a factor in the case.

The police and today that they had no doubt that Brown was right-handed and that he could use his left hand as well as the other.

VANDERBILTS LOSE $5000 BRACELET

Dropped by Mrs. Reginald While Driving With Her Husband.

By Boston American Leased Wire.

NEWPORT, March 29.—While Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt were driving in their car in Portsmouth, Mrs. Vanderbilt lost a diamond bracelet.

The bracelet was a diamond bracelet, and it was worth $5,000.

The bracelet was found by a boy, and it was returned to the Vanderbilts.

The bracelet was found by a boy, and it was returned to the Vanderbilts.

The bracelet was found by a boy, and it was returned to the Vanderbilts.

The bracelet was found by a boy, and it was returned to the Vanderbilts.

The bracelet was found by a boy, and it was returned to the Vanderbilts.

The bracelet was found by a boy, and it was returned to the Vanderbilts.

The bracelet was found by a boy, and it was returned to the Vanderbilts.

The bracelet was found by a boy, and it was returned to the Vanderbilts.

BOSTON GIRL STOLEN AND SOLD FOR $600?

ABDUCTION OF CHINESE MAID CHARGED AGAINST NEW YORK CELESTIALS.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Mrs. Josephine Toy, a half-breed Chinese, and mistress of the Morning Star Chinese Mission House, reported that she had been sold for $600.

The girl was sold for $600, and she was sold for $600.

The girl was sold for $600, and she was sold for $600.

The girl was sold for $600, and she was sold for $600.

The girl was sold for $600, and she was sold for $600.

The girl was sold for $600, and she was sold for $600.

The girl was sold for $600, and she was sold for $600.

The girl was sold for $600, and she was sold for $600.

The girl was sold for $600, and she was sold for $600.

The girl was sold for $600, and she was sold for $600.

The girl was sold for $600, and she was sold for $600.

COPYRIGHT PHOTO BY UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

Continued from First Page.

LONDON, March 30.—Dispatches re-

LIAO'S MOUTH MINED.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Count Cassat, Russian ambassador, has informed the

ALLS UNCLE SAM A PARVENU

100,000 JAPS NEAR AN-JU.
LONDON, March 25.—A report from

U. S. FLAG LOWERED.

own, as a result of the martial law proclamation.

COREA NOT NEUTRAL.
ST. PETERSBURG, March 20.—The Russian government to-day announced that in view of recent Japanese proceedings in

CZAR'S CRUISER AT CADIZ.
CADIZ, Spain, March 29.—The Russian

PITTSBURG, March 30.—The Standard Oil Company has reduced its quotations for all grades of crude oils. The cut in the Pennsylvania product amounted to three cents, making quotations $1.68. This is the fourth cut of three cents since March 1.

All grades of gasoline were cut one cent gallon.

WIFE, IS ARRESTED
HENNINGTON, Va., March 29.—Mr.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The Japanese Legation has made public an official re-

"There is some spare between the Hachii Hiko Maru. It is a matter of regret that the roadstead could not be completely closed up. The casualties were as follows:

"Killed, Commander Hirose Takeo, one

The remainder were safely taken in by our torpedo boat destroyer flotilla and tor-

CHARGE OF MURDER

Continued from First Page

Inveterate Cigarette Smoker.
Wilson was barred from violent athletic games because of his ailment. However, he has extraordinary strength. He is an inveterate smoker of cigarettes, but mother upon whom he depended, and to whom he turned when he felt the epileptic his defects.

"Young Wilson is as clean and honest a fellow as I ever met," is the opinion of John Brown, the first man to take the assistance when he rushed from the room where his father and mother lay dead. "I have known the boy ever since he came to Koolindine. I never have heard a word whispered against his character."

Reputation Was Good

Continued from First Page.

Chicago, Great West	52.6
Chicago, Ohio	52.6
Chicago, Great West	15.7
Manhattan, Erie	14.2
Missouri Pacific	9.8
St. Louis	11.7
St. Paul	11.7
Southern Pacific	10.9

U. S. Steel, preferred.....	58 1/2
U. S. Steel Mining Fund.....	74 1/2

YOUR LAST CHANCE TO SEE DR KOCH

New Gas	100	100%	100%
United Fruit	102	102%	102%
Atchafalpa	104	104%	104%
Union Pacific	106	106%	106%
Amalgamated	108	108%	108%
Continental	110	110%	110%

Parrot	251	applied only by inhaling them in a	and examining the sputum of eleven
Quincy	82	vaporized state. The lungs constitute	hundred cases. I am convinced the MILWAUKEE, March 26.—Mr. Roosevelt, in his campaign for re-election, advising that he may at times be a back-sifter of candidates rather than a meddler in politics. He is opposed by the Woman's Republican Club.

CASTORIA | Want Advertisements.

Signature of Chas. H. Fisher

Yet people walked into the counting room and left their advertisements, paying for them FIFTEEN CENTS per agate line, when they were not without TWENTY CENTS per agate line FOR THE WHOLE advertisement if ANY display was used.

No advertising is of greater human interest than these small, unpretentious announcements of what the great majority of the people want.

1870  1904

A embarrassing because people always think it comes from over-eating.

Dr. Edward Koch, the inventor of lung structures, has taken place by "Nothing but a direct application of healing vaporized medicines, antiseptics and germicides to the very seat of the disease will effect a cure of any lung disease. These medicines can be applied only by inhaling them in a vaporized state. The lungs are the seat of germ-killing Tuberculin; it can be given at your own home. Do not fill the stomach full of medicines, which do more harm than good.

"After years of careful observation and examining the sputum of eleven treatment was discovered, perfected bronchitis associated with dyspepsia and first successfully applied by me, which is brought on from severe

Want Advertisements.

A rate card for this kind of advertising had not been sent out.

They are encyclopedias—full of information—full of interest—full of nature, the greatest educator of all.

Hearst's Boston American should be, and probably will be, the natural medium for the publication of these small advertisements, since The American is the paper of the people for the people.

The above rates apply to both the Evening and Sunday Ameri-

GREEN AND WHITE TURBAN

rosettes of green and white ribbon hold the brim in place. If you have any heirlooms in the shape of black or white lace veils, now is the time to display them. Never has there been such a season of lace; the hats are simply swathed in its lovely, filmy folds, and fortunately there are few women to whom a soft lace drapery is not becoming.

A THRILLING LOVE STORY.

BY HAL REID.

"Just anger so that I have concluded to let Heaven punish you instead of taking your life with my own hands. Your conduct has ruined my home. Your mother—"

Margie's bitter laugh startled some shivering passers-by and for an instant swerved them from their homeward course.

"Then you admit that I have a mother, although you say that you have no children. My dear mother! How is she?"

"Only God knows, the man sobbed to anguish. She is dead and is wandering about in the streets somewhere, crying, 'Life is pain.'"

"And I tell you that it is your work."

"Don't lie, Go, leave me, before I strike you to the earth."

"You have no right to strike me." Margie folded her arms and looked at him without fear. "You have said and

John Maynard stood irresolute for a moment, then turned and made his way feebly through the drifting snow and crossed the street.

When David returned he found his sister kneeling in the doorway, her head bent, her hands clasped in absorbing prayer.

"Margie, here it is!" He thrust the big yellow loaf into her hands.

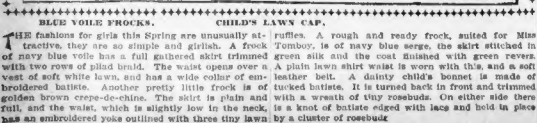

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Hearst's Boston American Pattern.

Misses' Frock.

FROCK OF BROWN WOOL.

BY THEODORE KREMER

[illegible]

BAKED GRITS.

BAKED GRITS.

One quart milk.
One cupful grits.
Two eggs and salt.
Put the milk in a kettle and salted and boiling stir in the grits and boil for twenty minutes. Set it aside to cool thoroughly. Then mix with the eggs and salt and bake them well and add to the grits. Their hair an hour.

FROZEN ROUFFLE.

Take three tablespoons of granulated sugar and six raw egg yolks; whip and add one cup of hot water while beating. When in almost solid form remove and cool the mixture. Then add one blue of corn whipped up with one fresh and one beaten laid finger cut in small pieces. Freeze in an ice cream freezer. When frozen dip out and serve with a sauce of cream with a buttered cloth and berries. Serves two.

ICE CREAM.

BACED CHOCOLATE CUSTARD.

Grate or scrape two squares of unsweetened chocolate; melt into a saucepan of milk. Add one cup of sugar and two tablespoons hot water, and stand at the side of the stove for five minutes. Then add one first laid finger cut in two, and one quart of milk and the prepared chocolate and mix thoroughly. Bake in a water bath for one hour.

Stand in a pan of hot water in a moderate oven until a custard is formed. Remove the chocolate and add one cup of cream and one egg. Bake in a water bath, and serve very cold.

[illegible]

Chart No. 4525. Sizes for 12, 14 and 16 years.

.....X

No.

Size.....

Name.....

Address

.....X

